4. WAYS AND TERMS OF PROCESSING PERSONAL INFORMATION

4.1. The processing of the User's personal data is carried out without any time limit, in any legal way, including in personal data information systems using automation tools or without using such means.

4.2. The User agrees that the Developer has the right to share collected information with third parties, including those who provide analytics, tracking, advertising or any other third-party services that ensure the operation of the Applications ("Partners"). Such information can be used to personally identify the User's device (IDFA, IDFV, advertising identifier and IP address) in order to provide services, display advertisements, conduct analysis and research, as well as to measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns and campaigns of our Partners. Moreover, the Developer's liability for any breach of confidentiality through the fault of third parties is limited to the amount of compensation received from the Partners.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION ABOUT CHILDREN

5.1. The only personal data necessary for the delivery of our services we collect from the Users who are indicated to be under the age of 13 are the persistent identifiers (such as the device ID, IDFA, IDFV, advertising ID, and IP address). Such permanent identifiers are used and disclosed to third parties exclusively to support internal operations aimed at ensuring the display of contextual advertising (including limiting the frequency of impressions).

5.2. Since the Applications are not aimed at children under 13 years old, the Developer does not knowingly collect personal information from them, except for the identifiers specified in clause 5.1. of this Privacy Policy. If the Developer detects personal information of a child under 13 years old, in addition to a permanent identifier, the Developer will take all reasonable steps to delete this information. If you find out that your child has provided us with his personal data without your consent, please contact us at hello@8locate.app

5.3. To ensure confidentiality and protect younger Users, a restriction is applied (for EU countries) after downloading the Application. The functions that have the potential to collect and share User's personal data (except for the persistent identifiers) will be disabled for the device IDs of the Users who do not meet the age restriction. To ensure our Users' safety, it is impossible to change later the age indicated in the User profile.

6. TRANSBOUNDARY TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA

6.1. The Developer, before starting the cross-border transfer of personal data, is obliged to make sure that the foreign state in whose territory it is supposed to transfer personal data provides reliable protection of the rights of Users.

7. COOKIE-FILES AND SIMILAR TECHNOLOGIES

7.1. When using the Applications, the Developer uses cookies and similar technologies. To collect certain information, the Developer uses automated tools, including cookies, including web beacons, tracking pixels, browser analysis tools, server logs and mobile identifiers. In many cases, the information that the Developer collects using cookies and other means are used without the possibility of identification by linking to personal information. The Developer also grants the right to its Partners to use such tracking technologies or to attract third parties to track the behavior of the User in the Application.

7.2. Third parties may use cookies, web beacons and other storage technologies to collect or retrieve information from the Applications and use this information to provide measurement services and to display targeted advertising. In the case of applications, third parties may receive or collect information from the Applications and use this information to provide services for measuring and displaying targeted advertising.

8. ADDITIONAL TERMS

8.1. The Developer has the right to amend this Privacy Policy unilaterally.

8.2. The new Privacy Policy comes into effect from the moment it is posted on the Website unless otherwise provided for in the new edition of the Privacy Policy.
